FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Group Space Still Available for 2005 European Tours

GRAND RAPIDS, MI – November 17, 2004 – Group blocks are still available for 2005 departures of tours offered by Image Tours, Inc. Travel agents can reserve group space for 20 to 44 passengers.

Image Tours is currently offering discounts of $100 per person, if booked by Wednesday, December 29, 2004. This discount applies to all departures of their 2005 tours, including group blocks. Travel agents can earn a free land tour with 16 passengers. Agents are also eligible for override commission, up to 17% on land, for group tours.

Group space can be reserved by contacting Laura Springer, Group Coordinator for Image Tours. She can be reached via e-mail at laura@imgatours.com or by calling 800-968-9161.

Image Tours offers 12 to Northern Europe, the British Isles, Western Europe, Eastern Europe and Southern Europe.

Image's most popular tour, their 15-day Heart of Europe Tour, is now in its 45th year and continues to draw first-time and repeat travelers to Europe.

Another tour popular with travelers is Image Tours' unique 15-day World War II Memorial Tour of Europe. This tour highlights the battlefields, memorials, and museums of World War II along with many other scenic delights of Western Europe.

For more information on any of Image Tours' 2005 departures and to order their latest brochure, visit their website at www.imagetours.com.

Image Tours was founded in 1939 in Amsterdam, The Netherlands. It began U.S. operations in 1960 on the belief that everyone, at least once in their lifetime, should experience the rich beauty, culture and history of Europe. The company designs, markets, and operates escorted tours of Europe.
